Parts of the Eucharistic Prayer: The Preface & Sanctus

The Preface

The Eucharistic prayer, which is the center and summit of the Holy Mass, begins with the Preface. The Preface (praefatio) is a thanksgiving prayer that serves in the Eucharistic Prayer, like an introduction to a discourse (fatio), “in which the priest, in the name of the entire holy people, glorifies God the Father and gives thanks for the whole work of salvation or for some special aspect of it that corresponds to the day, festivity, or season.”

The Preface of the Mass begins with a dialogue between the Celebrant and the entire congregation of the faithful. The priest greets the assembly by saying, "The Lord be with you," invoking the loving presence of the Lord in their midst. The people respond by affirming this invitation with "And with your spirit." Then, the priest invites the congregation to lift up their hearts and raise and place their entire being in God's presence - thoughts, memories, emotions, and expectations - in grateful attention and anticipation. This part of the preface emphasizes the communal nature of the Mass, reminding the congregation that they are not just spectators but active participants in the prayer of thanksgiving to God. The dialogue ends with a call to thank God on behalf of the entire community.

The praise and thanksgiving from which the entire Eucharist takes its name is primarily concentrated in the Preface, which proclaims the Church's thanksgiving for God's saving work. In the Eastern Church, the preface has a fixed form, but in the tradition of the Roman church, the preface has variable elements, stressing aspects of God's saving work according to the day, the feast, the season, or the occasion. For instance, prefaces used differ in Advent, Lent, Easter Seasons, and on Sundays of Ordinary time. Different and appropriate Prefaces are used for Masses at special occasions like Feasts and Solemnities of our Lord and Saints and for different votive and ritual Masses like Weddings, Holy Ordination, Religious Profession, and Mass for the deceased. Some of the Eucharistic prayers have proper prefaces integral to their theme, for example, Eucharistic Prayers II and IV and a couple of Eucharistic prayers for Reconciliation. Even though Eucharistic Prayer II has its proper preface, the celebrant can substitute it with those that similarly present the mystery of Salvation. The Eucharistic Prayer IV is constructed on a model of Eastern tradition, and it has its proper preface, which is a fixed and integral part of the prayer whose theme continues beyond the Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy...). Due to this reason, the celebrant is not permitted to replace the Preface of the Eucharistic Prayer IV with any other preface.

Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy...)

The Preface concludes with the acclamation of Sanctus, in which the congregation joins their voices with the heavenly powers to that of all creation in giving glory to God. This acclamation of Sanctus is a cento of various scriptural texts composed to be sung as a celebration of God's glory. Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might (Isa 6:3; Rev 4:8), heaven and earth are full of your glory (Isa 6:3). Hosanna in the highest (Matt 21:9; Mark 11:10) blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord (Ps 118:26; Matt 21:9; Mark 11; Luke 19:38). Hosanna in the highest (Matt 21:9; Mark 11:10). It is a symphony of unity that this acclamation of the heavenly liturgy (Rev 4:8) “gathers together into one praise of cosmic universe, the angelic world, the saints of heaven and the Church of the earth... Each Eucharist on earth invites us to travel towards this eternal praise of the liturgy of heaven.”

Stay tuned for the upcoming session: Parts of the Eucharistic Prayer continues.

Partes de la Plegaria Eucarística: El Prefacio y Sanctus
El Prefacio

La oración eucarística, que es centro y cumbre de la Santa Misa, comienza con el Prefacio. El Prefacio (praefatio) es una oración de acción de gracias que sirve en la Plegaria Eucarística, como introducción a un discurso (fatio), “en el que el sacerdote, en nombre de todo el pueblo santo, glorifica a Dios Padre y da gracias por toda la obra de salvación o por algún aspecto especial de la misma que corresponda al día, festividad o temporada”.

El Prefacio de la Misa comienza con un diálogo entre el Celebrante y toda la congregación de fieles. El sacerdote saluda a la asamblea diciendo: "El Señor esté con vosotros", invocando la amorosa presencia del Señor en medio de ellos. El pueblo responde afirmando esta invitación con "Y con tu espíritu". Luego, el sacerdote invita a la congregación a levantar el corazón y elevar y colocar todo su ser en la presencia de Dios (pensamientos, recuerdos, emociones y expectativas) en atención y anticipación agradecidas. Esta parte del Prefacio enfatiza la naturaleza comunitaria de la Misa, recordando a la congregación que no son sólo espectadores sino participantes activos en la oración de acción de gracias a Dios. El diálogo finaliza con un llamado a agradecer a Dios en nombre de toda la comunidad.

La alabanza y la acción de gracias que dan nombre a toda la Eucaristía se concentran principalmente en el Prefacio, que proclama la acción de gracias de la Iglesia por la obra salvadora de Dios. En la Iglesia Oriental, el Prefacio tiene una forma fija, pero en la tradición de la Iglesia Romana, el Prefacio tiene elementos variables, enfatizando aspectos de la obra salvadora de Dios según el día, la fiesta, la temporada o la ocasión. Por ejemplo, los Prefacios utilizados difieren en Adviento, Cuaresma, Pascua y los domingos del tiempo ordinario. Se utilizan Prefacios diferentes y apropiados para Misas en ocasiones especiales como Fiestas y Solemnidades de nuestro Señor y los Santos y para diferentes Misas votivas y rituales como Bodas, Sagrada Ordenación, Profesión Religiosa y Misa de difuntos. Algunas de las oraciones eucarísticas tienen Prefacios adecuados e integrales a su tema, por ejemplo, las oraciones eucarísticas II y IV y un par de oraciones eucarísticas de reconciliación. Aunque la Plegaria Eucarística II tiene su propio Prefacio, el celebrante puede sustituirlo por otras que presenten de manera similar el misterio de la Salvación. La Plegaria Eucarística IV está construida sobre un modelo de tradición oriental y tiene su propio Prefacio, que es parte fija e integral de la oración cuyo tema continúa más allá del Sanctus (Santo, Santo, Santo...). Por este motivo, al celebrante no se le permite sustituir el Prefacio de la Plegaria Eucarística IV por ningún otro Prefacio.

El Prefacio concluye con la acclamación de Sanctus, en la que la congregación une sus voces con las de los poderes celestiales a la de toda la creación para dar gloria a Dios. Esta acclamación de Sanctus es un cento de varios textos bíblicos compuestos para ser cantados como celebración de la gloria de Dios. Santo, Santo, Santo, Santo es el Señor, Dios del universo (Isaías 6:3; Apocalipsis 4:8), llenos están el Cielo y la tierra de su Gloria (Isaías 6:3). Hosanna en el cielo (Mateo 21:9; Marcos 11:10) bendito el que viene en el nombre del Señor (Sal 118:26; Mateo 21:9; Marcos 11; Lucas 19:38). Hosanna en el cielo (Mateo 21:9; Marcos 11:10). Es una sinfonía de unidad y acclamación de la liturgia celestial (Apocalipsis 4:8) “reúna en una sola alabanza al universo cósmico, al mundo angelical, a los santos del cielo y a la Iglesia de la tierra... Cada Eucaristía en la tierra nos invita a peregrinar hacia esta eterna alabanza de la liturgia del cielo”.

In today's Gospel Jesus is asked "What sign can you show us?" Every day we can see signs of how God has visited us in the blessings of our lives. Let us be a sign of God's love by being a blessing to others. Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please contact the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can be a sign of God's love to the suffering and poor. Our Pots & Pan Drive starts today and runs through March. SVDP is in need of slightly used or new kitchen items to get our neighbors back on their feet. Please bring your donated items to the vestibule and place in the box by the church door. Thanks much!

En el evangelio de hoy se le pregunta a Jesús: "¿Qué señal puedes mostrarnos?" Cada día podemos ver señales de cómo Dios nos ha visitado en las bendiciones de nuestras vidas. Seamos signo del amor de Dios siendo una bendición para los demás. ¿Conoce alguna familia que necesite ayuda? Comuníquese con la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl para que juntos podamos ser un signo del amor de Dios hacia los pobres y los que sufren.

Nuestra campaña Pots & Pan Drive comienza hoy y se extenderá hasta marzo. SVDP necesita artículos de cocina nuevos o ligeramente usados para que nuestros vecinos se recuperen. Por favor traiga sus artículos donados al vestíbulo y colóquelos en la caja junto a la puerta de la iglesia. ¡Muchas gracias!

UNITED CATHOLIC APPEAL

"Not sure what the United Catholic Appeal is, or what it supports? If that is you, take a moment and watch this video we put together to explain all you need to know about the United Catholic Appeal and the ministries that it supports.

If not for the commitment of parishioners throughout the Archdiocese of Indianapolis to the United Catholic Appeal each year, the ability to provide vital services and ministries in central and southern Indiana would be impossible. The appeal is the primary source of funds for many programs and ministries that go beyond the scope of any individual parish and are only made possible through your collective generosity. "

"¿No estás seguro de qué es la Campaña Católica Unida o qué apoya? Si ese es usted, tómese un momento y mire este video que preparamos para explicar todo lo que necesita saber sobre United Catholic Appeal y los ministerios que apoya.

Si no fuera por el compromiso de los feligreses de toda la Arquidiócesis de Indianápolis con la Campaña Católica Unida cada año, la capacidad de brindar servicios y ministerios vitales en el centro y sur de Indiana sería imposible. La apelación es la fuente principal de fondos para muchos programas y ministerios que van más allá del alcance de cualquier parroquia individual y sólo son posibles gracias a su generosidad colectiva.
