Lord Jesus, as You once called the first disciples to make them fishers of men, let your sweet invitation continue to resound: Come, follow Me! Give young men and women the grace of responding quickly to Your voice. Support our bishops, priests, and consecrated people in their apostolic labor. Grant perseverance to our seminarians and to all those who are carrying out the ideal of a life totally consecrated to Your service. Mary, Mother of the Church, the model of every vocation, help us to say "Yes" to the Lord Who calls us to cooperate in the divine plan of salvation. Amen.

John Paul II

Señor Jesús, como una vez llamaste a los primeros discípulos para hacerlos pescadores de hombres, que siga resonando tu dulce invitación: ¡Ven, sígueme! Da a los jóvenes, hombres y mujeres, la gracia de responder rápidamente a Tu voz. Apoya a nuestros obispos, sacerdotes y personas consagradas en su labor apostólica. Concede perseverancia a nuestros seminaristas y a todos aquellos que están llevando a cabo el ideal de una vida totalmente consagrada a Tu servicio. María, Madre de la Iglesia, modelo de toda vocación, ayúdanos a decir "Sí" al Señor que nos llama a cooperar en el plan divino de salvación. Amén.

Juan Pablo II

Parts of the Holy Mass: Educational Series – 18 Parts of the Eucharistic Prayer: Intercession & Doxology

Intercession

We may be surprised to have intercessory prayer again after the universal prayer of the faithful following the homily/Creed. Actually, the Eucharistic prayer imitates the bipartite structure of the old Jewish blessing of thanksgiving and petition. "It could be affirmed that the Eucharistic prayer is nothing but the Jewish prayer at the center of which one has intercalated the account of the Institution, with the epiclesis and the anamnesis."

With its intercessory nature, the Eucharistic Prayer occupies a particular part for intercession that underscores the communal celebration of the Eucharist, uniting the entire Church, both celestial and earthly. The offering is made for all members of the Church, the living and the dead, who are called to partake in the redemption and salvation brought about by Christ's body and blood. At this moment of intercession, the Church prays that the fruits of this sacrifice may be experienced throughout the Church and the World. During this part of the Eucharistic prayer, "the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints are named as prime examples of the fruits of this redemptive sacrifice and as forerunners in the communion of the living and the dead." Praying in communion with Mary, the Apostles, and the saints, the Church now intercedes their help for the living and dead in union with the Lord. In the eucharistic prayer, we not only pray for the Saints and the dead who are part of the heavenly Church but also for the earthly Church. Specifically, we pray by name for the Pope, the diocesan bishop, and then for the priests, the deacons, and all those who care for the people of God.

The list of saints mentioned in the Eucharistic prayers varies from one prayer to another. The first Eucharistic Prayer mentions many great figures and martyrs from the local Church of Rome. On the other hand, the third Eucharistic Prayer allows for mentioning only a local patron saint or a saint whose solemnity, feast, or memorial is being celebrated. The second Eucharistic Prayer, the shortest and most commonly used, does not provide any space for adding the names of saints but commemorates them in general.

Doxology

By the final Doxology (doxology = word of praise), the Eucharistic prayer is concluded. The Eucharistic prayer concludes where it begins, with an ascription of praise and glory to God that is endorsed and ratified by the congregation through their solemn acclamation of Amen. The final Doxology begins with the priests chanting, "Through him, with him, and in him..." The great and solemn Amen of the congregation stresses the people's confirmation of all that has been proclaimed on their behalf by the priest. Priest does this Doxology by raising the consecrated bread and Wine "in a gesture that vividly expresses the true nature of the Eucharistic sacrifice as the offering of the Church through Christ the High Priest; with Christ, who is really present in the Church; and in Christ, who has incorporated his people into himself by the action of the Holy Spirit."

The Doxology and the Congregation's response with Amen hold significant importance in the Eucharistic prayer. Singing the Doxology and prolonging or repeating the Amen with musical settings can enhance the Congregation's experience and expression of its power. After the Doxology, the priest should pause, drawing attention to the completion of the Eucharistic prayer and the commencement of the communion rite.

Partes de la Santa Misa: Serie Educativa – 18 Partes de la Plegaria Eucarística: Intercesión y Doxología

Intercesión

Quizás nos sorprenda tener nuevamente oración intercesora después de la oración universal de los fieles después de la homilía/Credo. En realidad, la oración eucarística imita la estructura bipartita de la antigua bendición judía de acción de gracias y petición. "Se podría afirmar que la oración eucarística no es más que la oración judía en cuyo centro se ha intercalado el relato de la Institución, con la epiclesis y la anamnesis".

Por su carácter intercesor, la Plegaria Eucarística ocupa una parte particular de intercesión que subraya la celebración comunitaria de la Eucaristía, uniendo a toda la Iglesia, tanto celestial como terrena. La ofrenda se hace por todos los miembros de la Iglesia, vivos y muertos, que están llamados a participar de la redención y salvación realizadas por el cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo. En este momento de intercesión, la Iglesia ora para que los frutos de este sacrificio se experimenten en toda la Iglesia y en el mundo. Durante esta parte de la oración eucarística, "la Santísima Virgen María y los santos son nombrados como excelentes ejemplos de los frutos de este sacrificio redentor y como precursores en la comunión de los vivos y los muertos". Orando en comunión con María, los Apóstoles y los santos, la Iglesia ahora intercede por su ayuda por los vivos y los muertos en unión con el Señor. En la oración eucarística no sólo oramos por los santos y los difuntos que forman parte de la Iglesia celestial sino también por la Iglesia terrenal. Específicamente, oramos por nombre por el Papa, el obispo diocesano y luego por los sacerdotes, los diáconos y todos aquellos que cuidan del pueblo de Dios.

La lista de santos mencionados en las oraciones eucarísticas varía de una oración a otra. La primera Plegaria Eucarística menciona muchas grandes figuras y mártires de la Iglesia local de Roma. Por otra parte, la tercera Plegaria Eucarística permite mencionar únicamente a un santo patrón local o a un santo cuya solemnidad, fiesta o memoria se esté celebrando. La segunda Plegaria Eucarística, la más corta y la más utilizada, no deja espacio para añadir los nombres de los santos, sino que los conmemora en general.

Doxología

Con la Doxología final (doxología = palabra de alabanza), se concluye la oración eucarística. La oración eucarística concluye donde comienza, con una adscripción de alabanza y gloria a Dios que es respaldada y ratificada por la congregación mediante su solemne aclamación del Amén. La Doxología final comienza con los sacerdotes cantando: "Por Cristo, con él y en él..." El gran y solemne Amén de la congregación enfatiza la confirmación del pueblo de todo lo que ha sido proclamado en su nombre por el sacerdote. El sacerdote hace esta Doxología elevando el pan y el vino consagrados "en un gesto que expresa vívidamente la verdadera naturaleza del sacrificio eucarístico como ofrenda de la Iglesia por medio de Cristo Sumo Sacerdote; con Cristo, que está realmente presente en la Iglesia; y en Cristo, que ha incorporado a sí mismo a su pueblo por acción del Espíritu Santo."

La Doxología y la respuesta de la Congregación con el Amén tienen una importancia significativa en la oración eucarística. Cantar la Doxología y prolongar o repetir el Amén con escenarios musicales puede mejorar la experiencia de la Congregación y la expresión de su poder. Después de la Doxología, el sacerdote debe hacer una pausa, llamando la atención sobre la finalización de la oración eucarística y el comienzo del rito de la comunión.

Observing World Day of Prayer for Vocations / Respetando el Dia Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones

The best way to foster vocations to the priesthood and religious life is on the local level - in families and parishes. Here are some ideas for promoting vocations in your family:

- Celebrate anniversaries of baptism, using them as an occasion to talk about the universal vocation to holiness that all Christians are given in their baptism
- Invite priests, seminarians, or religious men and women to your home for dinner. Start with your parish priest(s).
- Pray daily as a family for vocations - that children will know the vocation God is calling them to follow and that those who have embraced a vocation will be faithful to their calling.
- Using the Seminarian Prayer Cycle, pray by name for an Archdiocesan seminarian every day.
- Attend the annual Priesthood Ordinations for the Archdiocese of Indianapolis, typically held on the first Saturday of June at Ss. Peter and Paul Cathedral in Indianapolis.
- As a family, visit a seminary (such as Saint Meinrad Seminary) or a religious community for men and women.
- Attend Mass together as a family one day during the week, in addition to Sundays.
- For youth or young adults, encourage them to attend events such as the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) and World Youth Day, plus parish and Archdiocesan sponsored gatherings of young people.

Parents of seminarians and men discerning the priesthood - learn more about the process of discerning the priesthood and the policies and guidelines for seminarians in our Archdiocese in the Archdiocese of Indianapolis Seminarian Handbook.
